St Margaret Mary Alacoque: A French Roman Catholic Visitation nun and mystic, is greatly recognized for her devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She was born in 1647 in France. Margaret had always shown an intense love for the Blessed Sacrament and preferred silence over typical childhood play. Margaret made a vow to the Blessed Virgin Mary to consecrate herself to religious life, Margaret added the name Mary to her baptismal name. She entered the Visitation Convent at Paray-le-Monial in May 1671 to become a nun. During her time in this monastery, Margaret received several private revelations of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. These visions showed her the "form of the devotion, the chief features being reception of Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month, Eucharistic adoration during a 'Holy hour' on Thursdays, and the celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart." The Lord Jesus requested His love be made evident through her.

St Margaret Mary died at the age of 43, on October 17, 1690, while being anointed. She spoke the words, "I need nothing but God, and to lose myself in the heart of Jesus."
